Numb. 10427.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 16, to Tuesday June 19, 1764.

St. James's, June 19.

LETTERS lately received from New York have brought an Account of Preliminary Articles of Peace having been concluded and ſigned by Sir William Johnſon, Bart. and the Deputies from the Seneca Nation, which are as follows.

PRELIMINARY ARTICLES of Peace, Friendſhip, and Alliance, entered into between the Engliſh, and the Deputies ſent from the whole Seneca Nation, by Sir William Johnſon, Bart. His Majeſty's Sole Agent and Superintendant of Indian Affairs, for the Northern Parts of North America, and Colonel of the Six United Nations, their Allies and Dependents, &c.

Article 1.

That the Seneca Nation do immediately ſtop all Hoſtilities, and ſolemnly engage never more to make War upon the Engliſh, or ſuffer any of their People to commit any Acts of Violence on the Perſons or Properties of any of His Britannic Majeſty's Subjects.

The Sachems and Chiefs of the Senecas agree fully to this Article.

Article 2.

That they forthwith collect all the Engliſh Priſoners, Deſerters, Frenchmen, and Negro's, amongſt them, and deliver them up to Sir William Johnſon, (together with the two Indians of Kaneſtio, who murdered the Traders in November 1762) previous to the Treaty of Peace, which will take Place within three Months, if theſe Articles are agreed to; and that they engage never to harbour or conceal any Deſerters, Frenchmen, or Negro's, from this Time; but ſhould any ſuch take Refuge amongſt them, they are to be brought to the Commanding Officer of the next Garriſon, and delivered up; promiſing likewiſe never to obſtruct any Search made after ſuch Perſons, or to hinder their being apprehended, in any Part of their Country.

Agreed to; and they will aſſiſt in apprehending any ſuch in their Towns.

Article 3.

That they cede to His Majeſty, and His Succeſſors for ever, in full Right, the Lands from the Fort of Niagara, extending Eaſterly, along Lake Ontario, about Four Miles, comprehending the Petit Marais, or Landing-Place, and running from thence Southerly, about Fourteen Miles, to the Creek above Fort Schloſſer, or Little Niagara, and down the ſame, to the River or Strait; thence down the River or Strait, and a-croſs the ſame at the great Cataract; thence Northerly to the Banks of Lake Ontario, at a Creek or ſmall Lake, about Two Miles Weſt of the Fort; thence Eaſterly along the Banks of Lake Ontario, and a-croſs the River or Strait to Niagara, comprehending the whole Carrying Place, with the Lands on both Sides the Strait, and containing a Tract of about Fourteen Miles in Length, and Four in Breadth. And the Senecas do engage never to obſtruct the Paſſage of the Carrying Place, or the free Uſe of any Part of the ſaid Tract; and will likewiſe give free Liberty of cutting Timber for the Uſe of His Majeſty, or that of the Garriſons, in any other Part of their Country not comprehended therein.

Agreed to; provided the Tract be always appropriated to His Majeſty's Sole Uſe; and that at the Definitive Treaty, the Lines be run in the Preſence of Sir William Johnſon, and ſome of the Senecas, to prevent Diſputes hereafter.

Article 4.

That they allow a free Paſſage through their Country from that of the Cayugas to Niagara, or elſewhere, for the Uſe of His Majeſty's Troops and Subjects, for ever; engaging never to obſtruct or moleſt any of His Majeſty's Troops, or other His Subjects, who may make Uſe of the ſame, or who may have Occaſion to paſs through any Part of their Country by Land or by Water, from hence forward.

Agreed to; and moreover (if required) the Senecas will grant Eſorts of their People; but it is expected they will not be ill-treated by any of the Engliſh who may paſs through their Country.

Article 5.

That they grant to His Majeſty and His Succeſſors for ever, a free Uſe of the Harbours for Veſſels or Boats within their Country on Lake Ontario, or in any of the Rivers, with Liberty to land Stores, &c. and erect Sheds for their Security.

Agreed to.

Article 6.

That they immediately ſtop all Intercourſe between any of their People and thoſe of the Shawneſe, Delawares, or other His Majeſty's Enemies, whom they are to treat as Common Enemies, and to aſſiſt His Majeſty's Arms in bringing them to proper Puniſhment; ſolemnly engaging never to be privy to aid or aſſiſt any of His Majeſty's Enemies, or thoſe who may hereafter attempt to diſturb the Public Tranquility.

Agreed to.

Article 7.

That ſhould any Indian commit Murder, or rob any of His Majeſty's Subjects, he ſhall be immediately delivered delivered up to be tried and punished according to the equitable Laws of England; And should any White Man be guilty of the like Crime towards the Indians, he shall be immediately tried and punished, if guilty: And the Senecas are never for the Future to procure themselves Satisfaction, otherwise than as before-mentioned, but to lay all Matter of Complaint before Sir William Johnson, or His Majesty's Superintendant of Indian Affairs for the Time being, and strictly to maintain and abide by the Covenant Chain of Friendship.

[Price Three-pence.]

Agreed to.

Article 8.

For the due Performance of these Articles, the Senecas are to deliver up three of their Chiefs as Hostages, who are to be well treated, and restored to them, so soon as the same are fully performed on their Parts.

They agree to leave as Hostages, Wannughsisa, Serrihoana, and Arajungas, three of their Chiefs.

Article 9.

In Consequence of their perfect Agreement to the foregoing Articles, Sir William Johnson doth, by virtue of the Powers and Authorities reposed in him, in the Name of His Britannic Majesty, promise and engage, that the said Indians shall have a full Pardon for past Transgressions: That they shall be left in the quiet and peaceable Possession of all their Rights not comprized in the foregoing Articles; and that on their duly performing the same, and subscribing to the Definitive Treaty of Peace, to be held in Consequence hereof, they shall be once more admitted into the Covenant-Chain of Friendship with the English; and be indulged with a free, fair, and open Trade, so long as they abide by their Engagements.

This Article the Senecas expect will be strictly regarded; and also that Trade will be carried on in a fair and equitable Manner.

The foregoing Articles, after being duly and fully explained to the Chiefs and Warriors, Deputies from the Senecas, they have signified their Assent thereto, by affixing the Marks of their Tribes to these Presents.

Given under my Hand at Johnson Hall, the third Day of April 1764.
